DEFENDANT: YUSEF REYNOLDS
CASE NUMBER: CR 12-12 RGA

SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

You shall participate in a program of mental health treatment, which may include cognitive behavioral life skills training, and domestic violence counseling.

You shall participate in a drug aftercare treatment program, which may include testing.

You shall participate in an alcohol aftercare treatment program, which may include testing.

You shall participate in any educational, vocational, job training, including the U.S. Probation Office's Workforce Development Program.

As a consequence of the defendant's criminal conviction for the instant offense, the U.S. Probation Office is providing the defendant with notice of our intention to consider recommending the imposition of special conditions specifically related to a sex offender. These conditions, which may include random polygraph examinations, are not routinely imposed and may be more intrusive and restrictive of the defendant's liberty than the standard conditions. Additional conditions being considered by the probation office include the following:

You shall register with the state sex offender registration agency in the state where you reside, work, or is a student, as directed by the probation officer.

You shall reside in a residence approved, in advance, by the probation officer. Any changes in the residence must be pre-approved by the probation officer.

You shall not visit or live at a residence where there are children present without third party notification and without prior approval of the court. You shall not invite or otherwise encourage anyone under the age of 18 to visit your living quarters.

You shall participate in home confinement with electronic monitoring, which shall include a global positioning system (GPS-Location Monitoring) component, and you must abide by all rules, regulations, and requirements of the program for a term of 3 months.

You shall submit to random polygraph examinations, on subjects related to monitoring supervision and treatment of the defendant, at the direction of the probation officer. Such examinations shall be administered by a certified examiner. You shall be required to contribute to the costs of the polygraph examinations to the extent you have the ability to pay.

You shall participate in a mental health treatment program which may include sex offender therapy, as well as an Abel Assessment evaluation, including any risk assessment, at the direction of the probation officer.

You shall not own or operate a personal computer with Internet access in the home, or any other location, including employment, without prior written approval of the Court.

You are restricted from engaging in any occupation, business, profession, or volunteer activity that includes contact with children without prior written permission from the court. At the direction of the probation officer, you shall disclose the nature of your conviction to any such occupation, business, profession, or volunteer activity that includes contact with children.

You shall not possess or view any materials including pictures, photographs, books, writings, drawings, or video games depicting and/or describing sexually explicit conduct defined in 18 U.S.C. § 2256(2).

You shall not associate with anyone that is a known sexual offender, except in a registered treatment program.
